ADVANCED TICKETS ON SALE FOR THE 17th ANNUAL FLORIDA RENAISSANCE FESTIVAL

DEERFIELD BEACH, FL

– Advanced discount tickets are now on sale for the 17th Annual Florida Renaissance Festival, where the entire family can mingle with royalty, cheer jousting knights on fearless steeds, and enjoy multiple stages filled with entertainment fit for a king.

A chance to travel back to the 16th century within a short distance of home, the Florida Renaissance Festival opens at Quiet Waters Park in Deerfield Beach on Saturday Feb. 7. It will continue for five weekends, until March 8. The festival, which takes place between 10 a.m. and sunset, will also be held on President's Day, Monday Feb. 16. In addition the Florida Renaissance Festival will once again host area school children on school day, Friday February 20th.

Tickets purchased prior to Feb. 7 will be discounted $3 below the regular ticket price, which of $20 for adults and $7 for children 5-12. Children under 5 are admitted free. Season passes, limited King's Club VIP Memberships and group discounts are also available. Advanced tickets can be purchased online at www.ren-fest.com.

Regarded as one of the premier events of its kind, the Florida Renaissance Festival features continuous entertainment – from musical performances by minstrels to sword fights and mystical magical illusions. Street performers will be entertaining visitors as they make their way to the booths of more than 100 artisans who will demonstrate everything from glass blowing to blacksmithing, while exhibiting and selling their wares.

The 17th Annual Florida Renaissance Festival, produced by Bobby Rodriguez Productions, is sponsored in part by Warsteiner Beer, Pepsi, Albertson's, Woodpecker Cider, Chaucer's Mead, Community Bank of Broward, Broward County transit and Broward County Parks.
