A JOURNEY TO THE ORIENT

In Xanadu did Kubla Khan
A stately pleasure-dome decree
Where Alph, the sacred river, ran
Through caverns measureless to man
Down to a sunless sea.

March is Early Music Month
Special events, workshops, festivals and concerts are found throughout the county.

During the European “Dark Ages”, music was primarily religious in nature, as you would only raise your voice in song to praise God. Music was a dedicated prayer. The Renaissance marks a defining line in musical history. Music begins to be played for pleasure and secular pursuits. In the Royal Courts of Europe elaborate dances and theatricals featured complex compositions and every room in royal palaces had a musician providing background music to daily life.

“Early Music” encompasses Renaissance, Jacobean and Baroque styles spanning 2 centuries of music for pleasure.

Early Music America is a non-profit organization serving and strengthening the early music community in North America and raising public awareness of early music. They sponsor or support a variety of outreach programs and acknowledge events of noteworthy contributions to the arts and education.

The PHYFE AND FIDDLE STAGE is our music pavilion dedicated to early music artists. Featuring The Harper and the Minstrel, Hooligan, Martyn Wyke, Cantiga and the Morning Consort, these performers have recorded dozens of albums, hold the highest honors and enjoy sterling international reputations. In the chaotic frenzy of a typical festival day, take a little time to explore the Phyfe and Fiddle Stage and experience the sublime serenity and gentle good humour to be found there.
