

2026 Fact Sheet

Florida Renaissance Festival

The Florida Renaissance Festival is an award-winning, immersive celebration that transports guests to the 16th century through a unique blend of history, fantasy, and interactive entertainment. Held over eight consecutive themed weekends in February and March at Quiet Waters Park in Deerfield Beach, this annual event features engaging live performances, artisan markets, thrilling demonstrations, and cultural "edutainment" for all ages.

Who: The Florida Renaissance Festival is produced and directed by Bobby Rodriguez, a nationally award-winning event artist and producer known for creating dynamic and immersive experiences.

What: Entering its 34th season, the Florida Renaissance Festival has evolved from a modest two-day event into a premier eight-weekend experience. It includes, but is not limited to:

- Live Jousting Tournaments with knights on horseback, thrilling sword fights, and medieval-style games performed by world-renowned professionals.
- Birds of Prey Exhibitions showcasing raptors in full-flight demonstrations by a master falconer.
- Twelve Stages of Entertainment, offering non-stop performances ranging from comedy and music to acrobatics and magic—fun for all ages.
- Educational and Historical Demonstrations that provide engaging insights into life during the Renaissance era.
- Hundreds of Costumed Performers, who bring authenticity and atmosphere to the entire festival grounds.
- An Artisan Marketplace featuring over 100 skilled vendors selling handmade crafts, jewelry, clothing, weapons, and more.
- A Feast Fit for Royalty, with a wide variety of medieval-inspired food and drink, from giant turkey legs and meat pies to sweet confections, ales, and mead.
- Interactive Games and Crafts, offering hands-on fun and learning for both children and adults.
